Somewhere in Italy

Dear Dr. Tate,

I am mailing to you today a money order for seven dollars ($7.00). Three dollars ($3.00) is for Pfc. Benjamin L. Vook and four dollars ($4.00) for me - Pfc. Theodorus H. Hobbs. Sgt. Robert Hoover told me that he has already sent to you his contribution for the organization.

As I told you when I was there in Sept., conditions would be bad for contact. I haven't seen any of the other fellows for quite some time now, and have no idea when I'll have the opportunity of seeing them. Some time ago I talked to a few of the fellows from 370th Inf. - the outfit that preceded us here. I told them about the setup and gave them a good idea what it was about. You should hear from some of them soon.

I'm sure you have been reading the papers quite regularly. It is everything but pleasant where we are. We are hoping and praying that the war will soon end so we can return. As often as conditions permit, I'll write to you.

Give my sincere regards to the other members and to the faculty and student body of Howard as well. P.S. The money order will travel slower than this letter.

Sincerely,
Theodorus H. Hobbs
